WHAT'S YOUR PASSION?

Connecting People Who Care With Causes That Matter

MESSAGE TO THE COMMUNITY

What's your passion?

What are the causes that inspire and motivate you? What nonprofits and community groups touch your heart, and compel you to volunteer your time and donate your resources?

Those are the questions we've been asking the Outer Banks for the past couple years, and those questions were the inspiration for our cover photo, which was generously shot by Daniel Pullen (pro bono!) in July 2016 at the Chicamacomico Life-Saving Station on Hatteras Island. Our goal was to illustrate, in one photograph, the huge diversity of great causes that the Community Foundation supports, thanks to our incredible donors: health care, the arts, education, history, culture, public safety, food relief, conservation... and the list goes on.

Eddie Greene and Ray White, two of our founders, dressed in garb that illustrated their passions: theater arts and duck hunting, respectively. Our scholarship recipients brought items that were meaningful to them: a saxophone, a computer, a graduation gown. We had a volunteer firefighter, a nurse from our local free clinic, the director of our food pantry, and a family that grows vegetables in a community garden.

But in shooting that photo, some extra magic happened along the way. Trey Cunningham, the recipient of four scholarships from the Outer Banks Community Foundation last year, was able to meet and thank two of the men who started it all, our founders Eddie and Ray. It was a special moment when Trey told those gentlemen that the organization they created was making it possible for him to attain his dream of a college education.

Our founders got it started, and our donors make it happen — people like you who are investing in our community for the long haul. On the pages that follow, we recognize and thank all of our 2016 donors, remember any persons they honored with their giving, and enumerate the names of all their beneficiaries — the wonderful and diverse nonprofits, students, and causes they supported last year.

In 2016, thanks to you, the Community Foundation helped 80 students attend college, assisted 435 people rebuild after Hurricane Matthew and Tropical Storm Hermine, and supported dozens of local nonprofits in their work to make our Outer Banks an even better place to live and thrive.

So, what's your passion? What inspires you? We invite you to call your Community Foundation if we can help you support the causes that matter to you.

ABOUT THE COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

The Outer Banks Community Foundation is a public charity that connects people who care with causes that matter. Founded in 1982, the Community Foundation helps donors meet local charitable needs in Dare County and across the Outer Banks, from Corolla to Ocracoke, by targeting grants and scholarships toward our community's most pressing needs and promising opportunities.

The Community Foundation manages a collection of undesignated charitable funds, grant-making funds, nonprofit endowments, and scholarship funds, created by different donors at different times for different purposes. Donors may create funds during their lifetime or by bequest, for general charitable purposes or for a particular cause or organization that they specify. The Community Foundation provides tailored services to help individuals, families, businesses, and other groups pursue their charitable goals easily, effectively, and with maximum tax benefit.

Through our Community Enrichment Grants Program, the Community Foundation is the venture capitalist of our local charitable sector, supporting the Outer Banks's most exciting and most urgent charitable projects. The Community Foundation is a catalyst, helping the nonprofit sector evolve to take on new challenges and opportunities as they arise. The Community Foundation also manages designated

Ray, dressed in camo gear with his faithful hunting dog, Baley, shows his passion for Ducks Unlimited, whose focus is waterfowl habitat conservation, and Edward, dressed in colonial garb from The Lost Colony production, shows his love of the arts. endowments on behalf of nonprofits, providing those groups with sustainable, easy funds for whatever their needs might be.

Through our Scholarship Program, the Community Foundation has helped 1,500 local students pursue their dream of a college education. The Community Foundation is the largest and most diverse scholarship provider in our area, awarding both need-based and merit-based scholarships to the future leaders of our country.

The Community Foundation's perpetual endowments are a resource for today and tomorrow. With the Outer Banks Community Foundation, people who love the Outer Banks can give back to the community they love to help meet today's pressing needs, while building a source of support for future generations.

The Outer Banks Relief Foundation has created a new endowment in memory of Warren Judge to assist people in our community who face debilitating illness, disease, or personal tragedy. The fund, held by the Outer Banks Community Foundation, provides ongoing and perpetual support for any and all of the Relief Foundation's program, operating, or capital needs. Named for Warren Cameron Judge, III, the new endowment honors the late civic leader who humbly served his community in countless extraordinary ways. (Photo by Jim Troutman.)

Wayne Fulcher, former "Artist in Residence" at the Indian Town Gallery in Buxton, now has a scholarship in his memory and bearing his name. The Community Foundation is proud to steward this endowment on behalf of the Gallery and in partnership with the Dare County Arts Council, which will run the scholarship program. Born in Buxton, Wayne was a renowned artist and an important figure in the Hatteras Island art community. His paintings are widely collected in the United States and abroad.

A new field-of-interest fund is dedicated to all creatures great and small – the Schiffman Fund for Animals. This new endowment was established in 2016 by Lila Schiffman of Wanchese, known for her compassion for animals and especially her dedicated rehabilitation of squirrels and other wildlife. Grants from the Schiffman Fund will help our local nonprofits protect, rehabilitate, and care for animals and wildlife. (Photo by Chris Hannant, Outer Banks Milepost.)

WHAT'S YOUR PASSION?

A favorite nonprofit...

A cause that touches your heart...

Scholarships for young people...

Or the Outer Banks in general...

Whatever your charitable passion, we can help you plan your giving, leave a legacy, and establish a perpetual endowment to support the cause or nonprofit that inspires you most. It's easier (and less expensive) than you think.

We offer a range of funds to help you achieve your goals:

- Designated: To benefit your favorite nonprofit organization.
- Field-of-interest: You name a broad charitable cause (e.g., education, senior care) and leave the grant-making to us.
- Donor-advised: You choose the grants we award each year. Great for families!
- Scholarship: To help local students attend the college of their dreams.
- Unrestricted: Our most flexible fund, for donors who wish to help the Outer Banks but don't have a specific cause or charity in mind.

So what is an endowment? It's a perpetual fund that supports your designated charitable cause, now and forever. We invest your contributions and give out the earnings each year in grants and scholarships, in accordance with your wishes. You enjoy significant tax benefits, naming rights for your fund, publicity (or anonymity, if you wish), planned giving support, and comprehensive administrative, accounting, and investment services.

Most of our endowments start at $5,000, which can be contributed over three years. You can also open a fund with a future planned gift. All donations are tax-deductible.

For more information about starting a fund of your own, please contact Lorelei Costa at 252-261-8839 or LCosta@obcf.org.

DISASTER RELIEF FUND

Those are waves breaking in the parking lot of Cape Hatteras Secondary School. (Photo by Daniel Pullen.)

It was before daylight on Sunday, October 9, 2016. An 87-year-old waterman from Hatteras Island was standing with his cat in cold, waist-deep water in his house when he heard banging on his door. It was his neighbor on a surfboard, coming to rescue him from the flood. The neighbor found a skiff, and after nearly being swept into the sound, they made their way to Highway 12, where they were picked up in a high-wheeler and taken to shelter.

When asked what he needed, the waterman insisted that his neighbors needed more help than he. A friend had given him a bed, and he had salvaged his stove, washing machine, and a chair from his flooded home. He missed his sofa, where he and his cat used to sit — but that, he said, was “strictly a luxury.” His only real request was for a sweater; he never mentioned that he also needed a fridge.

Thanks to you, and everyone who contributed to our Disaster Relief Fund this fall, we bought that gentleman a new fridge — and a sofa for him and his cat — and helped him get some heat. And yes, he got a sweater, too.

This man is just one of the 435 people we have assisted — thanks to you — since the devastation of Hurricane Matthew. When that terrible storm made its unexpected visit, it was nearly 250 miles wide but was predicted to turn east before reaching us. But at the last minute, the system churned closer than expected, creating wind gusts up to 94 miles per hour. The end result? From Kitty Hawk to Hatteras, Manns Harbor to Ocracoke, our neighbors lost their homes, their livelihoods, their belongings.

Dare County’s Disaster Relief Fund was started in 2003 following Hurricane Isabel with a generous donation from the late Sterling Webster, III, and in the years since, his family and community have continued to support that mission of helping.

While the Community Foundation collects monetary donations, relief funds are distributed to victims and families through Interfaith Community Outreach, a local nonprofit, along with Dare County Social Services and the Cape Hatteras United Methodist Men. Generous donors from North Carolina and beyond sent contributions last year, along with notes of encouragement to bolster our spirits.

As with past hurricanes, the Relief Fund was used to help those in the direst need: a family of six that lost everything to the storm while the mother was struggling with cancer; an 80-year-old woman whose home of 50 years was flooded; the family of four whose trailer was smashed by a tree; and many, many more.

We on the Outer Banks are fortunate to live in an incredibly generous community — and to have the support of our friends from near and far. And to this day we continue to help those in the long process of rebuilding their lives and their homes. Thank you to all who helped the Outer Banks recover from Hurricane Matthew. For more information, or to give, go to www.obxdisaster.org.

Vibecke Lavan and her family rented a condo in Kitty Hawk the week of October 8, 2016. One of the last cars allowed across the bridge, they weathered the storm and snapped this photo of the aftermath from their balcony. They have visited the Outer Banks several times and promise to come again when we have nicer weather. (Photo by Vibecke Lavan.)

"Happy to help the people of the Outer Banks recover from Matthew. The people and places that have brought our family so much happiness."

"To our friends on the Outer Banks, a little something to help recovery efforts."

"It breaks our hearts to see the damage the permanent residents experienced. This is a small token to help them. We love OBX!"

Don and Catharine Bryan, our 2017 Champions

Each year we present a Champion Award to those who have made outstanding contributions to our organization and community. Our 2016 Champions are no longer with us, but their legacy will endure for generations to come.

Retired Air Force Colonel Donald Bryan was a true hero, enlisting in the Army in World War II, and serving in 25 missions as a tech sergeant and gunner in a B-17. He later became an Air Force pilot and served in the Korean and Vietnam Wars.

Don met the love of his life, Catharine Louise, on a blind date in 1945. Catharine also served her country, working for the Navy in World War II. The Bryans married the following year and traveled the world with the armed forces, retiring to Nags Head in 1972. Immediately they became leaders in this community, Don serving as Mayor of Nags Head from 1978 to 1991.

Most of all, Don and Catherine were passionate about the arts; she worked in art galleries, and he was an accomplished painter. They shared a vision — to make the Outer Banks a cultural center for locals and visitors alike. With several of their friends, they founded the Bryan Cultural Series, a nonprofit that brings exceptional arts and cultural events to the Outer Banks.

Don and Catharine not only started this effort; they are sustaining it. The Bryans chose to support the Cultural Series in perpetuity by leaving gifts in their wills to the Outer Banks Community Foundation. Their bequests have been placed in a perpetual endowment fund to benefit their Cultural Series; just like all of the endowments in our care, the Bryan Fund remains invested, with the earnings used each year to support the donors' favorite charity(s).

Don and Catharine Bryan left their legacy when they founded and sustained an arts organization that will inspire this community for decades to come. We are very grateful that they did.

Food for Thought

We were happy to help the Roanoke Island Historical Association shine a little more light on the Lost Colony production last year with a grant to upgrade stage lighting at the Waterside Theatre in Manteo. An earlier curtain time increased the audience for this lauded historical play, and our grant helped purchase special lighting for twilight conditions. This year, the Lost Colony celebrates its 80th anniversary. It is the longest running outdoor symphonic drama in the United States. (Photo courtesy of Roanoke Island Historical Association.)

The Community Care Clinic of Dare recently converted their electronic health record system with funding from a Community Foundation grant. The new product is a more effective technology solution and is financially more sustainable for this nonprofit organization. With its main office in Nags Head, the Community Care Clinic also maintains a weekly satellite clinic in Frisco and has provided no-cost health care to over 4,000 low-income, uninsured patients since its opening in 2005. (Photo courtesy of Community Care Clinic of Dare.)

Mary Rocap, singer, song-writer, baker, quilter, crafter, and frequent visitor to Ocracoke, enjoyed her interview and live performance with Peter Vankevich on WOVB 90.1 FM Ocracoke Community Radio. A grant from the Community Foundation helped facilitate the station's move to the former Ocracoke Fire Station. Truly a community radio station, with the assistance of volunteers, WOVB broadcasts sporting and special events, news, and music. Adjacent to Ocracoke School, the studio provides hands-on experience for students in radio broadcast journalism, communications, and engineering. (Photo by Peter Vankevich.)

On your mark, get set, GO! In Duck, the Advice 5K Turkey Trot is as traditional as sweet potatoes and pumpkin pie. Hundreds gather for this annual race to mark the holiday and work off some of the calories they plan to consume later that day. Ready to get off the couch? The 22nd Annual Advice 5K Turkey Trot will be held this year on November 23, 2017. Proceeds are donated to the Advice 5K Turkey Trot Fund, a permanent endowment at the Community Foundation, providing grants for health and wellness programs. MEMBERS

We gratefully recognize the following members, who contributed unrestricted membership gifts in 2016 or at a special recognition level in the Community Foundation's history.

What do math, science experiments, nutrition, life skills, peer mentoring, and tennis have in common? You will need to attend a special summer camp, "Love to Serve," sponsored by the Outer Banks Tennis Association, to find out! As part of this program, children are not only taught basic tennis skills, but are also taught about healthy lifestyles. Scholarships available. Game. Set. Match.
