Message from Our CEO

Dear Friends,

Like many of you, I feel fortunate to be here in this place, at this moment. In the wake of unprecedented loss caused by disaster and crisis, we've seen our community come together. At the same time, we've seen record growth and limitless opportunities for our thriving community. Thank you for joining us in our efforts to make the Outer Banks stronger by supporting each other.

There are so many important accomplishments from 2021 to share. The year opened with an eighth round of COVID Rapid Response grants. In total, over $350,000 was distributed to nonprofits working toward solutions for those affected by COVID-19. The funds we manage – donor-advised, organization and designated funds, scholarships, unrestricted, field of interest, and disaster relief – were behind more than $1 million in grant awards and distributions in 2021, and over $12 million since our founding. Last fall, we finalized our new Trusted Partners Program with Interfaith Community Outreach, Cape Hatteras United Methodist Men, and Ocracoke Interfaith Relief and Recovery Team, to formalize everything we've learned from past storms and to prepare us for the next one.

For me, one of the highlights from last year was to witness first-hand the power of endowments and legacy gifts. With forty years of generosity as our bedrock, we closed the year with over $25 million of philanthropic assets under management.

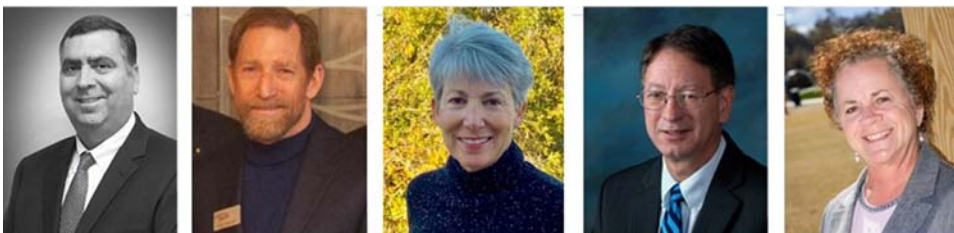

I will leave you with an invitation. We want to hear from you, to better to understand how we can help you create the impact you want to make in our community. Throughout 2022, we will keep you informed about our work; in the meantime, please don't hesitate to reach out to us.

Thank you for your partnership, your trust, and your unflinching resolve to help our community, through thick and thin. Everyone at the Community Foundation is honored to work with you, and we look forward to all that we will do together in 2022. To be part of this organization is to stand on the shoulders of the remarkable leaders who came before us—our founders, directors, nonprofit partners—and most importantly, donors like you.

Warmest regards,

Chris Sawin, President and CEO

A Servant's Heart – Portrait of Elizabeth Jane Gillespie Webster

Jane Webster loves to call the Outer Banks home. She revels in living in this special place inhabited by exceptionally creative, appreciative, and dedicated individuals. Jane personifies what our Community Foundation's early leaders knew: for those who find paradise here, their gratitude and desire to "put something back" is strong. The endowed funds she established, and the planned gift she has left for our community in her will, will result in many demonstrations of her gratitude for generations to come.

Jane's assured, pragmatic, and positive presence has brightened many local gatherings and also has benefited a number of nonprofit boards. In fact, she's so much in demand, she has consecutively served on no fewer than five boards in recent years.

"Our close-knit Outer Banks society cares about everything," Jane commented. "We care about arts and culture, animals, and we really care about human needs, foremost. That's extreme on our beach."

Board service began when she was invited to serve on the Friends of Jockey's Ridge board in the late 1990's. "Our job was to be supportive of Jockey's Ridge have an annual picnic," Jane recalled. "It was easy and fun."

Jane's love of horses drew her next to the Corolla Wild Horse Fund and its programs. That board, too, was small and less formal than more recent board experiences. One board led to another, and each stepping stone offered lessons.

Bryan Cultural Series and Outer Banks Relief Foundation have benefited from Jane's long-time presence on their boards. She also has made a difference over the years through her board service at The Outer Banks Hospital, Dare County Arts Council, and Food for Thought.

"Jane consistently seeks opportunities to provide visionary insight and support to strengthen a diverse mix of local nonprofit programs, services, and organizations," said Outer Banks Hospital President and CEO Ronnie Sloan. "With her compassionate heart, Jane strives to find solutions and bring people together for the common good."

From 2015 to 2021, Jane has been an energetic and inspiring leader through Community Foundation board service. She led as Board Vice President and as Grants Committee Chair from 2019 through 2021.

"I'd see the community needs through the eyes and applications of our grantees...health, disability, food insecurity," she recalled. "I realized that I really had no idea of the needs, and our small, small community. I wanted to learn, and to help...I felt I was in the right place, at the right time."

Jane credits much to her friend, mentor, and late husband, Sterling, who was a business and community leader, and passionate philanthropist. Together, they established the Webster Family Fund in 2014, effectively putting their passions into action. That fund's purpose is to "improve quality of life for the entire Outer Banks, with a primary focus on unmet needs."

Jane went on to create the Jane Webster Charitable Fund in 2018. Years from now, Jane's bequest gift will ensure this endowed fund fulfills its purpose to "award grants to nonprofit organizations that serve people from the Outer Banks with physical, intellectual, and/or developmental disabilities, and/or mental illness," for generations to come.

"Jane is this wonderfully rare combination of both steel and grace," said 2021-2022 Community Foundation Board Chair Clark Twiddy. "Through her actions, Jane is changing the face of non-profit leadership on the Outer Banks forever."

"Jane gives 200 percent," said Tess Judge, another one of Jane's close friends. "She truly has the heart of a servant."

"Jane rolls up her sleeves and offers to match her (numerous) talents with the needs of the groups she's helping. Sometimes she's the worker bee happily getting a task done, sometimes she's the leader thoughtfully setting a policy, sometimes she's the diplomat carefully wording a message, and sometimes she's the benefactor generously writing a check. ALL of the time, she's the wittiest and most charming person in the room, making sure we don't forget the delight of being together and the joy of teamwork."

Memorial Funds

A person's legacy

lives forever when a memorial fund is established in their name. Scholarship funds created in 2021 in memory of Sonny Albarty, Marc Basnight, R. Wayne Gray, Bill Jones, Irene Nolan, and Barbara Barnes Sherman will help aspiring students earn college degrees. Bob Parker was passionate about people with special needs, and Lois Nelms wanted to help meet unmet needs; Field of Interest funds established in their memories will support these causes. A Donor-Advised Fund in memory of General Paul "P.X." Kelley helps local vets. Inspiring stories about each of these individuals is on our website.

New Funds Spotlight

Barbara Hanft and Roland McDevitt

New Scholarships for Post-COA Graduates

Nancy Beach Gray established a new scholarship fund in 2021, in memory of her late husband, Wayne, and to support students graduating from College of The Albemarle. Roland McDevitt and Barbara Hanft had a similar desire to help students complete four-year degrees after community college, so they created the Hanft McDevitt Family Scholarship. They were inspired by Wayne Gray's story that shared how Gray, a professor at COA, encouraged his students to continue their post-community college education. Barbara and Roland also appreciate that a four-year degree is foundational for success in many professions. Our Board of Directors agrees, and joins these donors by adding a new, additional award for COA graduates from its OBX Scholars Fund. Now College of The Albemarle graduates have three new, renewable scholarship awards to apply for when pursuing four-year college degrees.

Nourishing Hatteras Island Fund

There's a new fund to help fight food insecurity and isolation on Hatteras Island. The Nourishing Hatteras Island Fund is a donor-advised fund, established "to support Hatteras Island Meals and other health and wellness programs on Hatteras Island." Hatteras Island Meals served 10,000 meals in 2020 alone. Grants and donations are the nonprofit's funding sources, and scores of dedicated volunteers spend time each week making sure that homebound neighbors receive prepared meals and the reassurance of personal contact. The best news of all: the fund establishers have left gifts in their wills for this fund, which will only increase its good work in future years.

People Helping Animals Fund

"There aren't that many people who devote effort to the care of animals...it's not easy work." There are several small, local nonprofits that are staffed entirely (or almost entirely) by volunteers that provide care for feral critters, wildlife, and domesticated pets; now there is a fund devoted to helping these groups. Our anonymous fund establisher wants to ensure that the compassionate people behind these nonprofits have the help they need for their projects to protect and care for all creatures, great and small.

The Outer Banks Community Foundation thrives because community leaders made extraordinary sacrifices as volunteer board members over the course of the past 40 years. They brought this organization to life, allowing them, in David Stick's words, to "participate actively and permanently in shaping the future of the Outer Banks, even after our departure. It is our way, individually and personally, of repaying our beloved Outer Banks for the wonders and contentment it has given us."

Grants Spotlight

Currituck County Public Schools

A grant to Currituck County Public Schools purchased tools and supplies to enable sensory regulation, language, and communication development for elementary school children at six schools. The items provided by the grant give students with special needs new resources to regulate their own sensory input and more effectively communicate with others at school. “The students are really enjoying the new materials in their classrooms and all teachers have been extremely appreciative,” said Jamie Miller, M.S.Ed., Director of Exceptional Children, Currituck County Schools.

Camp S.A.L.T.

Summer camps are places to learn, grow, have fun, and make new friends. Camp S.A.L.T. is all of that, and more. Three summer sessions focus on outdoor activities and adventures that include fishing, hiking, ropes courses, and climbing towers. These experiences are springboards to impart skill-building in teamwork, leadership, trust, good manners, and healthy habits and attitudes. “Many of the lessons learned and friendships made last for years, and we hope, for life,” said Sgt. Greg Padilla, First Flight Elementary School Resource Officer and Camp S.A.L.T. Assistant Director.

Outer Banks Hospital

A multi-year, $250,000 grant award to The Outer Banks Hospital will help build the new Outpatient Cancer Center in Nags Head. When the state-of-the-art center opens (projected for late 2023), it will co-locate all of the hospital’s cancer services under one roof, giving patients and their families an enhanced experience from diagnosis through treatment. Cancer is the leading cause of death in northeastern North Carolina; this new center promises to provide compassionate, coordinated, and innovative cancer care to the Outer Banks community and surrounding regions.

About the Community Foundation

The Outer Banks Community Foundation is a public charity, founded in 1982, that helps donors, businesses, and organizations meet local needs in Dare County and across the Outer Banks, from Corolla to Ocracoke, by supporting the nonprofit sector and by targeting grants and scholarships toward our community's most pressing needs and promising opportunities.

The Community Foundation manages a collection of funds, created by different donors, businesses, and organizations at different times for different purposes. Donors may create funds during their lifetimes or by bequest, for general charitable purposes or for a particular purpose that they specify. The Community Foundation provides tailored services to help individuals, families, businesses, and other groups pursue their charitable interests easily, effectively, and with maximum tax benefit.

The Community Foundation's perpetual endowments are a resource for today and tomorrow. With the Outer Banks Community Foundation, people who love the Outer Banks can give back to the community they love to help meet today's pressing needs, while building a source of support for future generations.
